DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after allowance or after an Office action under Ex Parte Quayle, 25 USPQ 74, 453 O.G. 213 (Comm'r Pat. 1935). Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, prosecution in this application has been reopened pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on November 2, 2009 has been entered.

Information Disclosure Statement

2. The information disclosure statement (IDS) submitted on November 2, 2009 was filed after the mailing date of the Notice of Allowance on August 11, 2009. The submission is in compliance with the provisions of 37 CFR 1.97. Accordingly, the information disclosure statement is being considered by the examiner.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

3. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

4. Claims 5, 6, 14, and 15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter.

Regarding to claims 5 and 6, these claims recited for "carrier wave" and claims that recite nothing but the physical characteristics of a form of energy, such as a frequency, voltage, or the strength of a magnetic field, define energy or magnetism, per se, and as such are nonstatutory natural phenomena. O'Reilly, 56 U.S. (15 How.) at 112-14.

Regarding to claims 14 and 15, these claims recited for "computer readable" and such computer readable is not clearly define in the specification and in the claims to exclude non-transitory media or medium, thus the examiner has given the broadest interpretation to the terms to include transitory media or medium and thus claims that recite nothing but the physical characteristics of a form of energy, such as a frequency, voltage, or the strength of a magnetic field, define energy or magnetism, per se, and as such are nonstatutory natural phenomena. O'Reilly, 56 U.S. (15 How.) at 112-14.

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claims 1-4 and 7-13 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The prior art of record fails to teach or make obvious the steps of or means for "the portion of the IP packet not including a protocol field to identify a payload type", when such protocol field is considered within the specific structure of the method recited in claims 1 and 7 or of the device recited in claims 12 and 13.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
